Improper parking includes:

- Parking without a paid hourly fee.
- Parking in wrong places (outside the marked boxes/lanes in the zone).
- Non-resident parking in places only for residents.

In these cases an orange sticker is put on a motor vehicle by an MPS' s controller informing an offender about a committed administrative offense and that a report has been made.

Yellow stickers are used in newly-opened zones (generally for the first days after the opening of the zone) and are informative, they warn that traffic rules have been violated and a fine may be imposed next time.

Each report is also checked by an administrative body of MsP, whether the substance of the administrative offense has actually been fulfilled, so an orange sticker on a motor vehicle does not automatically mean a fine. The administrative body of MsP examines also the time interval between a fine was imposed and a parking ticket purchased, a short time interval is tolerated and in such case the administrative body does not send an order to impose a fine for an administrative offense (hereinafter the "order").

- If the administrative body of MsP considers a report justified, an offender is sent an order within two years of the offense being committed. The Capital City of the Slovak Republic, Bratislava, imposes fines under Sec.46 and Sec.47 of Act No. 71/1967 Coll. on Administrative Procedure and under Sec.139(1) of Act No. 8/2009 Coll. on Road Traffic and amendments to some regulations.

The administrative body of MsP delivers the order to impose a fine to a vehicle holder's permanent address or to a company's registered seat according to the Commercial Register of the Slovak Republic, if a company is a holder. The order cannot be delivered by an e-mail. The order is delivered only in writing or to the activated electronic mailbox.

A 15-day period commences upon the receipt of the order, during which an offender may file an appeal with the administrative body of MsP issuing the order. Such appeal will include all facts that may lead to the administrative body of MsP evaluating whether the fine will be imposed or annulled. An offender shall obey the information in the delivered order.

If an offender is aware of their misconduct, they may pay a fine of EUR52 (2/3 of the imposed fine) instead of the original EUR78 within 15 days from the delivery of the order. Neither PAAS nor the Capital City of the Slovak Republic, Bratislava, determine the fine amount, it is specified in the Traffic Act.

If a party to the proceeding fails to use the opportunity to pay 2/3 of the imposed fine within the given period, they shall pay it in full within 15 days from the validity of the order. PLEASE NOTE! The order against which an appeal has not been filed in time has the effects of a valid decision.

If the administrative body of MsP establishes that an appeal does not meet conditions given in instructions, it will dismiss it. Dismissal of an appeal does not invalidate the order - a fine shall be paid. A party to the proceeding will be informed about dismissal.
